

Results of March 11, 2008 Visioning Exercise

From individual handouts

Opportunities

- Economic development
- Activity center
- High density low scale housing
- Urban village
- Transit oriented development
- Park land
- Open space
- Recreation
- No strip mall
- Cultural center
- Fisherman's wharf turn into fisherman's farmer's market
- UH marine lab site
- Preserve some industrial warehouse fed
- Parking lots
- Economic uses of park – arts, foods, fairs, sporting events
- Keep homeless center
- Cultural community center/ education
- Maintain vistas
- Performing arts center
- Pedestrian friendly
- Pathway connecting Ala Moana
- Open space in an area that does not have much
- Commuter transit center not a big bus hub but a nice area encouraging public transit
- Snack stand
- Wetland
- Natural environment
- Paddling club with Hawaiian focus
- Increase parking space
- Market place
- Gathering place
- Farm fish market
- Recreation areas
- Bike and walk paths
- Education research ocean tech
- Uses best used are related to ocean
- Green roofs on buildings and parking structure
- Buildings no longer than existing
- JABSON
- Cultural center
- Multi use museum with amphitheatre
- Enhanced outdoor amphitheatre/movies
- Multi use buildings for shops restaurants parking and possible apartments
- Bike path linking tram to Ala Moana Wward and Waikiki
- Mixed use
- Serve several community
- Pier 1 future
- Buildings that are owned/controlled by government
- Parking in berm-like natural looking
- Parking around the mauka side
- Like city parking at the police station
- Connect pathways
- Artificial river
- Surf spots
- Hawaiian cultural center
- Fishing
- Additional educational uses
- Re model Ala Moana side of Kewalo basin to expand pedestrian flow
- A conceptual bridge joining the makai and mauka side with town square
- Provide precontact hales as concessions for leaning and teaching
- Provide game area concessions
- Plantation life style for med center and bio research labs such as residential housing as part of the employment package
- Gathering place
- Open parks and recreation
- Public use on ocean front area
- Place for Hawaiian culture
- Revitalizations of Kewalo harbor
- Educational uses
- Historic venues for storytelling

Results of March 11, 2008 Visioning Exercise

From individual handouts continued

Opportunities

- Entertainment and performance venues
- Water sports and exhibitions
- Farmer's market
- Bike path
- Mauka makai vista
- Facility that blends ocean to mountain
- Bike paths
- Run paths
- Partnership with Kamehameha
- Fisherman's wharf as a faculty space arts
- Historic pump station – gateway and community center
- Mauka and makai connections
- Coastal connection
- Streets
- Active public spaces
- Connect Ala Moana park to Kewalo basin park
- Performing arts facility
- Active and passive ocean land uses
- Better utilization of lands and water
- Ocean safety and education
- Retail to support ocean recreation activities
- Boating center for local, state and international activities for competition, gathering, races
- Public use facility
- Tie coastline of Honolulu together and urban plan
- Cultural and economic pairing
- Youth educational opportunity
- Continue, enlarge green lei
- Park space for 30,000 residents
- Market as in legislation
- Strong community caring by surfers, park users and related
- Renewal – make a beautiful space to fulfill the play in HCDA's "live work and play"
- Vision leads and plans
- Demonstrate Hawaiian sense of place
- Kewalo basin as a new and improved facility
- Properties along Ala Moana
- Properties ewa of Kewalo basin
- Lower Ala Moana is key
- Point to prove connection to mauka lei of the land